New York's Largest Single-Issue Business Coalition Makes Its Resources Available on the Web

The latest information concerning affordable health care and health care mandates that affect businesses in New York State is now available on the World Wide Web at www.employeralliance.com

Who

The Employer Alliance for Affordable Health Care, the largest single-issue business coalition in New York State has launched a web site featuring a comprehensive media center, special reports, press releases, and advocacy information.

What

For the media and general public, the web site offers information on current health care mandates being considered in New York State and in some cases, cost-analysis information about the long-term financial impact of proposed legislation. For Employer Alliance members, the site is a resource that will help business owners remain up-to-date on issues that impact the cost of doing business. An advocacy center allows visitors to quickly and conveniently contact their state representatives. Visitors can also download newsletters and register to become a member of this growing organization.
